MIDDLE SCHOOL
RSA ACADEMY

Weekly update - Friday 24th January 2020

We seek to develop confident and creative learners who can thrive in a changing world.

Three C's cooking club

Three C's Cooking club has got off to an amazing start!! This week saw the first 'bake off' between two teams within a new group of year 8 pupils! Lemon muffins were the bake of the week. Owen and Kaiden were beaten by one point by Ruby and Suzanna due to their immaculate presentation, however Kaiden was chef of the week for pulling in the most bonus points for his team and for demonstrating clear communication. A great start!

KS3 Subject Stars of the week:

English –Jason Rock for excellent work analysing the poem 'slaveships'.

History- Frank Hands and George Bailey for detailed responses.

Maths –Jasmine Arnold for improved focus and taking pride in her work.

Alexie Osborne – for perseverance in her algebra work.

PE - Amy Chatwin and Millie Staunton – brilliant rugby tackling technique.

Music – Harry Snelling and Archie Clinton for an excellent composition and full explanation of process and decisions which lifted their finished work to Mastery! Well done!

French –Nathaniel Bryan - Completing all tasks in French and then actively seeking to help others when learning about routines in French.

Art –Lola Ellis for her fantastic tonal study of a face.

Science – Archie Clinton – for improved attitude to learning and contributions to class discussions

DT: -Mason Meadows for focusing on reviewing, refining and modifying his work.

Wiz news – Congratulations to all pupils who have been selected for parts in the Wizard of Oz! The hard work starts now! Rehearsals will be every Wednesday afternoon until 5pm. Letters for this will be sent home in due course. Mrs Crowe, Miss Farrell, Miss Dyer and Miss O'Hare are excited to get started!

KS3—Readers of the week:

Bethany Oliver; well done for completing two books so far this term and for being so polite at all times.

Nathaniel Bryan – Positive attitude and focus towards his reading.

Archie Clinton for making an effort to "get through" books and tests.

Lola Ellis for completing 'THE book'!

Leah O'Donnell for coming in and reading straight away every morning.

Aleesha Prince – always trying her best at her reading and in her tests

KS2 curriculum winners:

Rory Beaman for showing greater resiliency during afternoons and sticking at the task at hand whilst being engaged with his learning.

Hayden Windmill for fantastic articulation when describing the different climates of Earth. As well as this, Hayden is now showing more confidence when sharing his ideas and thoughts.

Millie Beaver for developing confidence and becoming self-regulating when completing homework.

Charlie Keeley for confidently talking about his work in music lessons and explaining his understanding clearly.

Olaf Reutt for increased focus and resilience when reading independently.

Alexie-May Redfern for a confident, mature and measured speech when debating a controversial topic during Thrive.

All of 6HC for showing excellent attitudes to learning throughout test week and for showing a huge amount of resilience.

KS3 Tutee of the week:

7HJ –Amelia Dainter – For a polite and helpful attitude at all times.

7MP –Jacob Ashford - Our fitness and health champion – always encouraging and reminding us to complete our weekly walk in tutor time.

7CH –Josh Dudley - superstar attendance monitor

8SF –Corinne Clements for her fantastic contributions during our discussions, and for always being incredibly polite and well-mannered.

8KB –Josh Harman for the ability to make me laugh!

8PM –Verity Ellis for starting the new term with 100% attendance.

WHO HAS BEEN ON THE KASE?

Communication from Macey Preston in supporting others with French activities.

Engaged and Enthused from Bartosz Cygan in all French lessons.

Self-directing and collaborative Harry Snelling, Laila Treadgold, Ally Marriot and Eden Taylor for their work on 'slaveships'.

Joshua Charlton and Keira Newman for fluency in their responses in history.

Lola Ellis – Resilience – Lola has been super resilient during her tonal piece of work, instead of rushing to complete her work, she has thought like an artist. Lola has constantly been reviewing and refining her piece, accepting constructive feedback and not giving in. It is her best piece so far!

Joshua Dudley for being ENGAGED and ENTHUSED whilst making his clock in DT

Lucy Heath problem solving – working through
